

Visitor Commitment

Thank you for visiting New Mexico State University. NMSU shares a global concern with the impact that COVID-19 may have on its employees, customers, visitors, and suppliers who conduct on-site essential business. NMSU has taken reasonably practicable measures to prevent the spread of COVID-19, in part by following the guidance and recommended by the U.S. Center for Disease Control and local, regional, and national authorities.

Before you visit our NMSU facility, sign the bottom of this Visitor Commitment confirming that during the past 14 days, to the best of your knowledge, anyone in your associated party who visits NMSU has not:

- travelled internationally;
- had physical contact with an person infected with COVID-19; or
- exhibited any COVID-19 symptom.

And at minimum, NMSU expects visitors to:

- follow recommendations of reputable health organizations and government officials;
- perform frequent handwashing, respiratory etiquette (cover your cough), daily health monitoring including taking body temperature;
- practice social distancing at a minimum of 6 feet apart between individuals;
- wear a face mask or face covering at all times when in the presence of others;
- not enter or remain on NMSU campus if I am sick with COVID-19 symptoms

NMSU's commitment to prevent the spread of COVID-19 include, without limitation:

- restricting travel globally;
- providing on-going guidance to its employees regarding frequent handwashing, daily health monitoring including taking body temperature;
- practicing social distancing at a minimum of 6 feet apart between individuals;
- requiring each individual to wear a face mask or face covering at all times when in the presence of others;
- performing risk assessments on all employees who may have encountered the virus or demonstrate flu-like symptoms, and preventing them from entering any NMSU site where necessary; and
- requesting each business visitor to sign a COVID-19 statement before visiting any NMSU site, and upon any failure to sign that statement, NMSU reserves a right to cancel an applicable visit.

NMSU affirms that to the best of its knowledge, each NMSU representative who you will directly engage on your visit has not during the past 14 days:

- travelled outside the U.S. or Canada;
